The background is a solid orange color. A diagonal line runs from the top right towards the bottom left, separating a lighter orange area in the top right from the darker orange area. A dark grey horizontal bar is positioned near the bottom, starting from the left edge and extending across the width of the image.

The predestinated day arrived, and we duly met the ship Jungfrau, Derick De Deer, master, of Bremen. At one time the greatest whaling people in the world, the Dutch and Germans are now among the least; but here and there at very wide intervals of latitude and longitude, you still occasionally meet with their flag in the Pacific.

For some reason, the Jungfrau seemed quite eager to pay her respects. While yet some distance from the Pequod, she rounded to, and dropping a boat, her captain was impelled towards us.
